Kinney serves on panel at state conference

Dr. Hugh Kinney, superintendent of the Pattonville School District, was selected as one of three superintendents in Missouri to participate in a panel discussion with a federal education official during the 43rd Annual Cooperative Conference for School Administrators, hosted by the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education.

Kinney participated in a panel discussion before an audience of more than 1,000 Missouri school administrators with Ray Simon, assistant secretary for elementary and secondary education with the U.S. Department of Education. The topic centered on the new federal legislation, "No Child Left Behind," which sets a goal of all students being proficient in communication arts and mathematics by the year 2014.
