Kinney earns recognition from North County Inc

Dr. Hugh Kinney, superintendent of the Pattonville School District, was recently honored with a Special Recognition Award from North County Incorporated. Each year, North County Incorporated honors individuals who have shown an overwhelming commitment to the North County region in areas of community service, business development and leadership.

Kinney has served as superintendent in Pattonville since 1997. He is currently serving as chairperson of the Federal Relations Network of the Missouri Association of School Administrators (MASA). Last year, Kinney served as president of the Greater St. Louis District of MASA.

Kinney recently completed a term as the chairperson of the Cooperating School Districts, a consortium of 61 area school districts. He was also named chairperson of School Night for Scouting in St. Louis County and recently completed a two-year term as chairperson of the Characterplus program. In 2004, the Missouri School Public Relations Association named him Administrator of the Year.
