

Pattonville director named Board Chairman for Maryland Heights Chamber

Patty Gould, director of school-business partnerships and community education for the Pattonville School District, was recently named Chairman of the Board for the Maryland Heights Chamber of Commerce.

Gould will run monthly meetings, monitor committees and special events as well as supervise the executive director for the year.